The U.S. Consulate General in St. Petersburg, Russia would like to invite American citizens to attend a Town Hall meeting with the Consul General and Consular section staff at 6 pm on March 11, 2010. The meeting will be held at the Consul General's Residence, 4 Grodnenskiy Pereulok, St. Petersburg. The meeting is open to U.S. Citizens resident throughout the Russian Federation and residents of our consular district are especially encouraged to come.

The Consul General and Consulate staff will speak briefly about issues relevant to Americans residing in Russia. They will also be pleased to answer questions of general interest about the activities of the Consulate. U.S. citizens in Russia are invited to ask questions regarding passports and visas, voting, and other emergency and non-emergency citizen services.

To participate, please R.S.V.P. via e-mail at StPetersburgACS@state.gov with the full names of those who will attend. Only U.S. citizens and their immediate family members will be admitted.

Please contact the American Citizen Services unit at the Consulate at 331-2600 or StPetersburgACS@state.gov with any questions.

We look forward to seeing you on March 11th!
